Elizabeth Huettinger

CAVAILLON

The Certified Sommelier began pouring at Cavailon in August of 2010, after moving to Rancho Bernardo with her husband. Her love affair with wine began with a 1962 Petrus, which she tasted with a dark chocolate truffle. Then, at age 21, Huettinger passed her first-level sommelier test. She will take the third level—to become an Advanced Sommelier—this April. It's quite an accomplishment, as there are just a few in San Diego—and Liz is only 26.

Favorite local wine: Fallbrook Winery—the delicious 2007 Reserve Cabernet.
