Hotels Near the Shoreline in San Diego

by Michelle Hornaday, Demand Media

San Diego's residents and visitors have access to 70 miles of beaches along the Pacific shoreline for surfing, sailing, swimming and sunbathing. Visitors can schedule rounds of golf at one of 92 courses in the San Diego region or jog along more than 100 miles of pathways. Overnight accommodations located near one of the San Diego region's 33 beaches are available for those planning an extended stay.

Pacific Beach Hotels

Reserve one of 73 guest rooms or suites overlooking the ocean at the Pacific Terrace Hotel (pacificterrace.com). Located between Mission Bay and La Jolla in the Pacific Beach neighborhood of San Diego, the hotel has an outdoor pool and spa and a wooden staircase leading to white sandy beaches. Guest rooms include private patios or balconies, refrigerators, nightly turn-down service and work areas. Room service is available from nearby restaurants, and fresh breakfast is served each morning at the hotel. The 21-suite Diamond Head Inn (diamond-head-inn.pacificahost.com) is also located on Pacific Beach's Boardwalk and has direct beach access. Suites include fully equipped kitchens and complimentary breakfast each morning.

Mission Bay Hotels

The Hyatt Regency Mission Bay Spa and Marina Hotel (missionbay.hyatt.com) has 429 guest rooms with balconies overlooking the Pacific and near the popular Sea World San Diego. Hotel amenities include a water park, full range of spa services, three swimming pools and room service. Schedule a whale-watching tour from the Hyatt's marina or stroll through eight acres of landscaped grounds. Also located in Mission Bay, the 10-acre Dana Hotel has close proximity to Mission Beach and has free shuttle service to Sea World. Guest rooms feature patios or balconies with bay views in either the Water's Edge or Marina Cove facility, and many include wet bars, sofa sleepers and dining areas.

Shelter Island

Visit Shelter Island, San Diego's Hawaiian Isle, for expansive views of San Diego Bay and the city skyline under swaying palm trees. The six-acre Best Western Plus Island Palms Hotel and Marina (islandpalms.com) has two-level villas overlooking its private yacht marina, one-bedroom suites and guest rooms with private balconies. Swim in one of two pool and spa areas or dine at the hotel's on-site restaurant with outdoor patio overlooking the marina. At Humphrey's Half Moon Inn and Suites on Shelter Island (halfmooninn.com), ride one of the inn's complimentary bicycles along the island's three-mile waterfront path or listen to live entertainment at the on-site music club. Guest rooms and suites at Humphrey's range from water view guest rooms with wet bar to 1,050-square-foot Grand Marina Suites accommodating up to eight guests.

Imperial Beach

For budget-friendly accommodations on the shoreline 13 miles south of downtown San Diego and 11 miles north of the Mexico border, try the single-story Sand Castle Inn (sandcastlevacation.com) in Imperial Beach. Choose from a traditional guest room with queen bed and sofa sleeper or one-bedroom apartments with fully equipped kitchens and dining area. The beach community of Coronado (coronado.ca.us) is a nine-mile drive north from the inn on Silver Strand Boulevard.
